

ABOUT US

'Walk 91' live in Apollo Bay. Walk 91 are the only 'Great Ocean Walk' tour company based in Apollo Bay, at the start of the Great Ocean Walk.

As this is our home, we are very committed to providing low impact tourism, and are currently processing our Eco tourism accreditation certificate. We also endeavour to continue employing our dedicated team from those who live in the surrounding area.

Walk 91 offer feedback forms to all of our walkers. Your feedback ensures that we maintain our high standards at all times, and we pass all feedback on to our accommodation providers to ensure they are constantly improving and upholding their great reputations.

Our walking notes are constantly updated, and we support 'Land Care' by issuing their general information to all our walkers.

Our mission is to pay attention to all the small details, which together help you to experience the hike of a lifetime.

Walk 91 encourages walkers of all levels to come and experience the outstanding beauty of this delicate and unique coastal environment, called the 'Great Ocean Walk'.

Meet Walk 91's team

Mark

Walk 91 is a family business owned by Mark Kininmonth. Mark, Walk 91s director, was a Parks Victoria ranger for 5 years in the Otway National Park. He has a deep knowledge and love of the Great Ocean Walk and the local area.

Preceding his work with Parks Victoria, Mark worked in the Tourism Industry for over a decade, in Australia, the UK, Egypt and Central America.

Mark is a keen walker, surfer and kayaker, a scuba diving instructor and a commercial diver.

Danielle

Danielle is Walk 91s Operations Manager and also lives in Apollo Bay. She has worked in hospitality for many years and is also a qualified teacher.

Danielle has experience in running many walking and camping expeditions, and loves the great outdoors. She has also spent several years teaching and living in Aboriginal communities in the Northern Territory, and has a deep interest in our Indigenous history.

Dani is also a keen gardener, and a wonderful baker, known especially for her chocolate brownies!

Nancy

Nancy runs Walk 91s retail outlet, helps with the general running of the business, and is the companies 'ideas person'! She emigrated to Australia 8 years ago from the UK, after travelling around the world, working and walking much of the way.

Nancy has worked as a production manager in retail in the UK and China, as a scuba tour guide in Indonesia, and a guide for tour companies on the Great Barrier Reef.

Nancy loves Apollo Bay –known as 'Paradise by the Sea' - and enjoys living and working in this wonderful community.

Adam

Adam is our technical guy who also designs and updates our website. He has lived in Apollo Bay all his life and knows the area well.

When not working hard for Walk 91, he is for studying an engineering degree. Adam is also a keen walker and Captain of the Surf Lifesaving Club.

Abby

Abby is our chief driver. He is reliable and friendly, and enjoys meeting all Walk 91 customers. His knowledge of the area is great, as he has lived here for many years. Ask Abby anything - he knows the Great Ocean Walk like the back of his hand!
